[As introduced in the Legislative Assembly.]

A Bill further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898; It is hereby enacted as V of 1898 follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 193 .

Amendment of section 167, Act V of 1898.

2. In section 167 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898,—

- (i) in sub-section (1), before the words “such Magistrate” the words “the place where” shall be inserted, and after the words “such Magistrate” the words “ordinarily holds his Court” shall be added; and
- (ii) in sub-section (2), after the words “this section” the words “after hearing the accused or his counsel if the accused so desires” shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 167 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is intended to provide for the necessity of obtaining remand of the accused to custody, so that the police may be enabled to complete the investigation. The Magistrate is required to give reasons for granting the remand. The accused has a right in justice to place his side of the case before the Magistrate, before the reasons given by the police are accepted by the Magistrate. Every person charged with an offence is presumed to be innocent till he is convicted of the crime with which he is charged. Hence the detention before conviction should be as short as can conveniently be made. The accused is entitled to be placed on his trial at the earliest moment and should not unnecessarily be detained in custody. Hence it is in the interest of justice that the accused should have a right to be heard before he is remanded. There have been several cases during the recent years where the accused were not brought to the Court before the Magistrate for obtaining the remand. The Magistrate was instead taken to the place where the accused was detained. Without giving an opportunity to the accused to be heard, the Magistrates often pass orders of remand after hearing the police side of the case alone. This is not in accordance with the principles of justice. Hence the present amendment is necessary in order to make it obligatory on the part of the investigating authorities to produce the accused before the Magistrate in a calm and solemn atmosphere of Court before any order of detention is passed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Since the enactment of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1890 (XI of 1890), conditions have materially changed both in the attitude of the public towards the question of cruelty to animals and in the circumstances in which, in modern times, draught animals have to work. That the Act in its present form is inadequate to check some forms of cruelty, and that public opinion in recent years has become alive to the question has been shown by legislation passed from time to time in the Provinces of Bengal and Bombay to make more effective provision for the prevention of cruelty to animals. In particular there has recently been abundant evidence of public opinion in favour of more stringent measures to suppress the practice of "phooka." Except in Bombay and Bengal the Act of 1890 has remained in force in its present form throughout British India. Hitherto the subject has been a provincial one, but it is now open to Central as well as Provincial Legislation, and after ascertaining that the large majority of Provincial Governments are in favour of amendment of the Act by Central Legislation, it has been decided to introduce this Bill with the object of remedying defects which have been found to exist in the Act and in particular to make more effective provision for checking the practice of "phooka".

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Papers Nos. I-IV

We, the undersigned members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to control the coastal traffic of India was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted in the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

We have completely re-drafted the Bill with the object of providing a more practical scheme for achieving the objects aimed at by the Bill.

We have introduced a definition of "coastal traffic" making it clear that this includes traffic between ports in British India and ports in Ceylon and Burma.

We have introduced a system of registration for the purpose of supplying a more effective means of exercising control over persons engaged in coastal traffic.

2. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 25th April, 1936.

3. We think that the Bill has been so altered as to require re-publication.

MINUTES OF DISSENT.

The Bill as amended by the Select Committee is no doubt a considerable improvement upon the original Bill. But all the same we are decidedly of opinion that it will not achieve the object of the Bill, viz., development of an Indian mercantile marine. Nothing short of the reservation of the coastal traffic will solve the problem.

The 3rd March, 1938.

A. C. DATTA.

SANT SINGH.

The 4th March, 1938.

This Bill, if passed into an Act, will be a futile one. I cannot conceive how an Indian mercantile marine can be developed without reserving the coastal traffic to ships brought under an Indian Register. Almost every other country had in the beginning imposed drastic restrictions on foreign ships.

SAMI VENCATACHELAM CHETTY.

The 2nd March, 1938.

This Bill was too bald and too inadequate, in my opinion, before the Select Committee commenced its labours. I was of opinion that unless it was wholly re-drafted it would prove injurious to the very purpose for which it was intended. The improvements effected by the Select Committee do not go far enough to achieve the objects of either reserving coastal shipping to Indian enterprise, or eliminating objectionable practices. In fact, there is substantial danger, under the punitive clause, of the right of complaint being so abused as to send the less resourceful rivals to the wall.

It is a matter of great national importance and the Government should take the initiative in bringing forward a measure which should encourage and protect Indian enterprise. I am far from satisfied with the Bill as it has emerged from the Select Committee.

BHULABHAI J. DESAI.

M ASAF ALI.

G. V. DESHMUKH.

This Bill, as re-drafted, in our opinion still contains the objectionable features which were mentioned during the debate on the motion for its reference to this Select Committee, whilst its scope has been widened so as to include goods and passengers carried between India and Burma, and between India and Ceylon. We are opposed to clauses 2—8 inclusive.

N. N. SIRCAR.

M. SLADE.

F. E. JAMES.

C. C. MILLER.

We agreed to the changes made in Select Committee under the impression that it was competent to us to make the changes. Since the meeting of the Select Committee we have been advised that the definition of the term "Coastal Traffic" in clause 2 and the consequential provision in clause 5 extending the scope of the term to ports in Ceylon and Burma, is not only too wide, but beyond the competence of the Indian Legislature. We shall, therefore, object to such extension and shall want to limit the definition and the operation of competition to ports in India only.

Penalty.

6. Whoever contravenes the provisions of section 3 or commits any act which is an offence under section 5 shall be punishable on conviction by a Court with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, and on such conviction the Central Government may cancel any certificate of registration granted to him under this Act.

8. The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules providing for the procedure to be followed for the fixing of minimum rates of fare and freight under section 5 and for any other matters necessary to be prescribed for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

RESOLUTION—No. 274T.R.

Darjeeling, the 14th May 1938.

Read—

The annual report on the Survey and Settlement Operations in Bengal for the year ending the 30th September 1937.

Traverse survey was done by the method of post-pointing over an area of 1,091 square miles in Dinajpur and by the ordinary method over an area of 1 square mile only in the same district. Minor traverse work was carried out in a total area of 114.45 square miles scattered over several districts in the province. In addition the Survey Department did work of considerable value in comparative mapping, demarcation of boundaries and reproduction of maps. The total number of sheets printed was 13,120 against 11,062 in the previous year.

2. Major settlement operations were in progress in the districts of Rangpur, Dinajpur, Howrah and Hooghly, while minor settlements as well as the maintenance operations under section 158A of the Bengal Tenancy Act were conducted in sixteen districts.

3. The total area for which a record-of-rights has been completed is 60,782 square miles out of a total of 65,231 square miles to which the Bengal Tenancy Act applies. The maps and the records are as popular as ever and their usefulness in every branch of the administration is universally recognised.

During the year under report the privilege of certificate procedure was granted to twenty-eight estates. In view of the impending repeal of section 158A as proposed in the Bengal Tenancy Amendment Bill, a tendency was noticed on the part of some of the privileged landlords to postpone maintenance operations in their estates until the final result of the Bill was known.

4. Rai Bijay Bihari Mukherji Bahadur was in charge of the department throughout the year, except from the 7th to the 9th May 1937, when he was on leave, and Rai Nepal Chandra Sen Bahadur acted in his place. The Governor has much pleasure in acknowledging the efficiency and care with which the department of Survey and Settlement have been managed in the year under review. He is also pleased to direct that the good work done by the Survey Officer Major C. B. Sexton, the Settlement Officers Messrs A. C. Hartley, F. O. Bell, S. B. Hatch-Barnwell, Rai Nepal Chandra Sen Bahadur, Rai Romesh Chandra Sen Bahadur, Rai Sahib Hira Lal Sen and by other officers mentioned in the last two paragraphs of the report be recorded.

Order—Ordered that the resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Dacca, the 9th May 1938.

Final Forecast of the Wheat Crop of Bengal, 1937-38.

[Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1935-36, the area under wheat in Bengal has represented some 0·4 per cent. of the total area under wheat in India. The ratio of the irrigated wheat acreage to total wheat acreage in (a) British India and (b) in the territory now reported on has, in the five years ending 1935-36, averaged (a) 41·7 and (b) 9·7 per cent. respectively.]

Character of the season.—As reported in the third forecast, the conditions have remained practically unchanged. The growth of the crop has been adversely affected by prolonged drought. On the whole, the season has been a fair one for the crop.

Acreage.—According to District Office estimates, the total area sown is 180,900 acres this year as against 149,500 acres last year.

Outturn.—The provincial outturn as worked out from the district estimate is 80 per cent. of the normal as against 84 per cent. last year. Taking the normal yield to be 9½ maunds per acre, the gross yield of the crop for the province is estimated at 45,400 tons this year as against 44,300 tons (revised) last year.

At the end of April the wholesale price of wheat in the Calcutta mart was Rs. 3-5 annas per maund or about 16 per cent. lower than the price ruling at the corresponding period of last year. The price of common rice at Calcutta, on the other hand, was Rs. 4-2 annas per maund or about 2 per cent. higher than last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

(b) a Ruler or a subject of a State in India or a British protected person of the tribal areas.

Provided that in the case of a British subject the requirements of this rule may be waived by the Secretary of State in Council if he is satisfied that their observance would occasion exceptional hardship, and that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's dominions as to justify special treatment.

3. A candidate must furnish a declaration from his father or guardian, in the form prescribed, that the latter is in a position, and will be prepared to discharge the financial obligations attaching to the candidate's training for appointment to the Royal Indian Navy. Should it be found that the declaration in regard to discharge of financial obligations during the period of training is false in any respect, the candidate will be liable to immediate removal.

The maximum number of candidates to be admitted to the examination may, in the discretion of the Governor-General in Council, be limited to such number as the Governor-General in Council may decide. If a limit is imposed and the number of candidates exceeds that limit, the Federal Public Service Commission shall select from among the applicants those who shall be admitted to the examination and shall have regard in so doing to the suitability of the applicants for employment as commissioned officers in the Royal Indian Navy.

9. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he holds a certificate of admission from the Federal Public Service Commission.

10. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support for his application will disqualify him for admission to the Royal Indian Navy.

11. Candidates must pay the following fees:—

- (ii) if accepted for admission to the examination, Rs. 50 immediately after the receipt of the certificate of admission.

- (b) in any place in a mine in which there is or is likely to be any such quantity of inflammable gas as to render the use of naked lights dangerous;
- (c) in any working near a place in which there is likely to be an accumulation of inflammable gas; or
- (d) in any ventilating district of a mine in which inflammable gas has been found during the previous twelve months.

(2) If any difference of opinion arises between an Inspector and a manager on the question whether the conditions specified in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-regulation (1) exist in any mine, the question shall be referred to the Chief Inspector whose decision thereon shall be final.

(3) In the case of any mine to which clause (d) of sub-regulation (1) applies the Chief Inspector may, if safety lamps are not immediately available, grant a temporary exemption from the operation of that clause, subject to such conditions as he may specify, until such time as safety lamps can be obtained.

(4) In any mine or part of a mine in which safety lamps have been in use in compliance with the provisions of sub-regulation (1), no artificial light other than an approved locked safety lamp shall subsequently be allowed or used, except with the written consent of the Chief Inspector,

Explanation.—Where the ventilation in a mine is not mechanically controlled, the ventilating district shall be deemed to include the whole mine.
